

Success Coaching Hour Breakdown

Week 1-12

Total Hours including voluntary

During my time working as a success coach, I made a table which I would fill out every week after I had completed all sessions. This included all the workshop sessions I attended, these sessions I was paid for. Next, I worked out the number of voluntary hours I completed, this included Wednesday sessions that were held for Python, also the 1 to 1 sessions I held for students. This table was important as it kept track of my progress and my current hours worked, meaning I could plan out how many I needed to work before the deadline and evenly spread them out.

Met Temps Timesheet

Every week I had to complete a timesheet of how many hours I had worked for workshop sessions. Once submitted, I had to complete a weekly feedback form, this was to show how the sessions were going and how useful they were for students. This also allowed my work supervisor to keep track of my hours, and to get detailed feedback to see if any adjustments needed to be made, like more sessions available or if any student was struggling.
